

January 26, 2019

Louisville runs away from Duke; wins 48-26

Louisville played tenacious defense and ran up the court with ease in their victory over Duke. AJ Zarccone (18 points, 12 rebounds, 4 assists, 4 blocks, 3 steals) led the way for Louisville, controlling the tempo of play all night. Zarccone scored 9 points in the first quarter, and gave a nice pass to Ethan Whitehead, who also scored in the quarter. At the end of the 1st, Louisville lead 12-6.

The trend continued in the 2nd quarter. While Zarccone was more of a facilitator, he helped set up teammate Liam Mcnamara (12 points, 15 rebounds) for 6 points in the quarter. At half-time, Louisville was winning 23-12.

Much of the same continued in the second-half. Zarccone added another 6 points and 8 rebounds, along with 2 assists in the half. Macnamara scored another 6 points, and pulled down 13 rebounds in the 4th quarter alone. Owen Tylec also got in on the action, scoring 4 points in the 3rd quarter. Matt DiGiulio scored a basket as well.

Not all was lost in the defeat for Duke however. Thomas Polek added 7 points, and Ian Wilson used his speed to score 9 points and add 2 rebounds. Luke Bradley got into a rhythm in the 4th quarter, scoring 4 points on nice moves the basket.

Louisville defeated Duke 48-26.