

Monday February 25, 2019

Bulls use big second half to clip Eagles

It was a tale of two halves, and for the Bulls, the second half was a good one, as they went on a 15-3 run to clip the Eagles 25-13.

The Purple Eagles took an 8-7 lead into the half, thanks to the play of Ava Seelbach (4 points, 1 rebound), who drained a pair of jumpers while sister Lia added a basket of her own. The Bulls stormed back in the second half as Sophia Waliszewski (16 points, 7 rebounds) took the ball to the hoop and couldn't be stopped scoring 6 points while Maggie Shiesley (5 points, 7 rebounds) added a basket as the Bulls opened up a 17-11 lead. Juliana Haacker got into the scoring mix with an interior basket, while Charlotte Lyons and Natalie Prezioso played great defense to help the Bulls close out the game.

In the loss, the Eagles got great play from Ella Cashion who cleaned up the boards, with a team-high 11 rebounds, also adding an assist on the offensive end. Molly Reynolds added 4 points, 7 rebounds while Amanda Young and Avery Janowsky played aggressively teaming up for 6 combined rebounds. Addison D'Andrea hit a nice jump shot in the fourth quarter and also added 3 rebounds.