Blue Jays defeat Athletics 24-7

Cardinals defeat Rockies 19-9

Player of the Day:

Piper Van Hoff—Blue Jays

Piper was solid all game long on Wednesday, producing both in the field and at the plate. At the plate, Piper went 4 for 5 from the plate, including a RBI double in the 2nd inning. Piper also played hard all game long, even when faced with adversity. In the 3rd inning, Piper was involved with a hard play at the plate when trying to score a run that left her shook up. Remarkably, she was one of the first Blue Jays back on the field the next inning, displaying great leadership skills.

Unsung Hero of the Day:

Adeline Graff—Cardinals

Adeline played great in her team's victory on Wednesday. Adeline went 3 for 3 from the plate with a couple of RBIs, and multiple runs scored. In addition, Adeline played many positions around the field, consistently making the right play.
