

June 25, 2018

Rockies defeat Astros 13-10

Cardinals defeat Athletics 33-17

Player of the Day

Savannah Hermanson: Rockies

Savannah made the play of the day in left field, when she robbed a would be homerun with an off-balance catch. Not only did she get the out, but she was able to turn a double play by throwing the ball back into second before the runner could tag. Savannah went 2-2 from the plate, scoring 2 runs in her team's 13-10 win over the Astros.

Unsung Hero of the Day

Faith Fry: Rockies

After starting the game at catcher, Faith went out and pitched 4 solid innings for the Rockies. She only gave up 7 runs, but completely shut down the Astros during innings 2-4. In the 4th, Faith worked a 1,2,3 inning, striking out all 3 batters she faced in the frame. Faith went 1-2 from the plate as well. Her pitching performance helped lift her Rockies to a 13-10 victory over the Astros.