Cardinals defeat Astros 15-14

Blue Jays defeat Rockies 17-7

Player of the Day:

Sabre Scaccia—Cardinals

Sabre was virtually unhittable on Wednesday night, pitching 4 innings while only giving up 2 runs. In both the first and fourth inning, Sabre shut down the Astros by pitching “1,2,3” out innings. After the great pitching performance, Sabre played behind the plate and blocked many pitches that went into the dirt. Sabre also helped her own cause by going 4-5 from the plate, and scored a run. She helped give her Cardinals a cushion, as they would hold on to win 15-14 over the Astros.

Unsung Hero of the Day:

Jordan Schafer—Astros

Jordan had her mojo back on Wednesday night, as she went 3-3 from the plate and scored 3 runs. While her team struggled to get hits early in the game, Jordan was a steady bat that consistently found holes in the Cardinals defense. By the end of the game, Jordan’s bat was a major contributor in the Astros efforts to complete the near comeback. On defense, Jordan made multiple plays at second base and shortstop, staying calm and getting important outs to help her team out of some jams.
