

CODE OF CONDUCT

In a continuing effort to provide quality, well maintained, clean and safe programs and facilities for the public, all participants and visitors are expected to exhibit appropriate behavior at all times, show respect to other participants, users, volunteers and staff and take direction from facility/program staff and volunteers. The following examples of behavior could result in removal or suspension:

Fighting or intent to harm,

Swearing, threatening and arguing

Vandalism

Inappropriate speech (racial comments, vulgarity, harassing comments)

The reasons listed are not meant to be exhaustive. City staff or program volunteers are responsible for the safe management of facilities and program. If a potential exists for disorder, personal injury, conflict or destruction of property, staff has the authority to remove or suspend any or all participants and visitors. There can also be additional consequences such as criminal charges, arrests, etc.

Help us make our programs and facilities be the best they can be, by being the best you can be!
